Teacher Training Course.

The state board of education has assigned as training teacher for the training course at Barton academy, Miss Florence Patrick from the teachers' college of Columbia University, N. Y. Miss Patrick is a woman of exceptional training and experience. For the last two years she has been assistant to Prof. Charles McMurry in the teachers' college at Columbia. Prof. McMurry is one of the leading national authorities on graded school work and methods. Miss Patrick is at present one of the instructors in public school methods in the summer school for teachers at Columbia, the leading summer school in this country. Barton is particularly fortunate in securing the services of so able a training teacher. The enrollment of high school graduates and the equipment and teacher combine to make this course far above the average training course. Those planning to teach can scarce afford to miss an opportunity thus given to secure expert training and the resultant higher wages paid training course graduates.

GREAT ANIMAL SHOW.

La Tena's wild animal show is coming to Barton on Friday, August 13, with a great street parade at noon and an afternoon and evening performance in their large tent on the fair grounds. The Rutland News says of their appearance there: The attraction was more than its advance notices have claimed it would be. Rutland, in all probability, never before has seen so excellent a show of the kind.

La Tena's show has all of the features of other animal shows and many features besides that the others do not offer. In the matter of trained and wild animals, the circus is unique.

Lions, tigers, bears, elephants, monkeys, and all the other animals that enter into the make-up of any first-class performing menagerie, were to be seen.

From the opening to the final number there was not a dull moment, for somewhere, either in the ring, on the stage or within the big steel animal arena, an act worthy of notice was in progress. A feature that proved well worth the price of admission alone was provided by Wesley's seals, an aggregation of trained animals that would be hard to equal anywhere. They played ball, played in a band and one actually succeeded in walking a tight rope unaided. In vaudeville, Wesley's seals would be termed a big time act; as a circus attraction the number has few equals.

Other animal acts worthy of more than passing notice were Walter Allen and his performing elephants, Buckman's bears and last, but by no means least, Marguerite's lions. A fancy riding act, featuring a tango on horseback, savored of the Barnum and Bailey show and was done with grace and ability by two clever equestrian performers. The program also included a very clever troupe of wire walkers who did many novel tricks and a family of contortionists besides a number of aerial performers of merit.

Trained dogs, a small army of clowns and a host of other attractions added the necessary variety and all in all it was a very fine entertainment.

will spend most of his vacation at home but will go to Dixville Notch for a short stay.

Murray McFarland, who has been spending the month of July at Scott's camp in Canada, has returned, and Mrs. McFarland and daughter, Ruth, who have been visiting in Hardwick for other towns, are back and at their camp in Lake grove.

Prospect Pomona Grange No. 25 will hold a basket picnic at Willoughby lake Thursday August 12, to which the public are cordially invited. A short literary program, baseball game and other games will be the features of the day. A good band in attendance.

One of the largest crowds of the season attended the band concert Saturday evening. There were over fifty automobiles parked in and near the square and as many teams, while all the available steps were occupied to their full capacity. The band gave us an especially good concert too.

Weather conditions for the past months have been very unfavorable for haying and much hay remains uncut. The crop, which was at first thought to be very light, has improved and many report a normal cut. Thus far there has been little hot weather and some crops are therefore backward, especially corn.

Rev. Wilmond Warner has sold his registered Morgan filly, "Nancy W." to Mrs. Amelie B. White of Weston, Mass. This colt is by "Welcome" from the John McLellan mare, and attracted much attention last winter when driven. Both Mr. McLellan and E. J. White have a colt from the dam of "Nancy W." John P. Urie has a beautiful colt by "Welcome" for which he has been offered a fancy price.

Vermont Notes.

The Hon. Joseph A. DeBoer, of Montpelier, who submitted Saturday to an operation similar in nature to the one he underwent several months ago, in Brookline, Mass., hospital where he has been ten days for examination, is apparently making a satisfactory recovery and the necessity of a second operation was not anticipated. His condition is said to be serious.

The condition of Alexander Williams of Kirby, who was gored by a bull Sunday as he drove the animal to water, is serious. It is feared that the man cannot recover. The rope by which he was leading it broke and the animal got away. In trying to capture him, Mr. Williams fell and was then attacked. One rib was broken and driven into his lung.
